

Community Calendar

FRIDAY | June 23

Winter Dance Party music tribute: The tribute recreates the final show of Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper at 7 p.m. at the Carson City Community Center, 851 E. William St. Cost: $20 general, $30 for VIP ticket including after-show reception with artists and families. Details: 887-2290.

"Cathouse Afternoon": A bawdy musical set in the 1870s when mischief ran rampant and gold ran the town showing at 7 p.m. at Pipers Opera House, 12 N. B. St., Virginia City. Cost: $18, $20, $25. Details: 847-7150 or 847-0433 or www.redroseonline.com.

Self Check Kids: Join the Carson City Library for the Unveiling and Celebration of its newest automation unit, a Self Check System for the Youth Services Department, which will allow children and their parents to check out library material themselves in the youth area. A reception will be from 10:30 a.m.-noon. Balloons and refreshments will be provided as well as hands-on instruction for using the Self Check System. The library is at 900 N. Roop St., 887-2244.

"Love's Labor's Lost": The Shakespeare comedy pits three men that swear off women against some enticing women at 7:30 p.m. at the Brewery Arts Center, 449 W. King St., Carson City. Cost: $15, $12 seniors, students, BAC members. Details: 883-1976.

SATURDAY | June 24

Shabby & Chic Flea Market: Buy and sell at the Western Nevada Community College's third annual Shabby & Chic Flea Market and Craft Fair from 7 a.m.-2 p.m. It will be the place to be in Carson City this summer to buy new treasures and sell unwanted items. The flea market will be in the north parking lot of the Carson City campus, 2201 West College Parkway. Details: 882-3238.

"Love's Labor's Lost": The Shakespeare comedy pits three men that swear off women against some enticing women at 7:30 p.m. at the Brewery Arts Center, 449 W. King St., Carson City. Cost: $15, $12 seniors, students, BAC members. Details: 883-1976.

"Cathouse Afternoon": A bawdy musical set in the 1870s when mischief ran rampant and gold ran the town showing at 7 p.m. at Pipers Opera House, 12 N. B. St., Virginia City. Cost: $18, $20, $25. Details: 847-7150 or 847-0433 or www.redroseonline.com.

SUNDAY | June 25

Carson City Relay for Life Golf Tournament: Four-person teams compete at Silver Oak Golf Course to benefit American Cancer Society's research fund. Tournament gets under way with shotgun start at 8:30 a.m. Entry fee $85 per player. Prizes for longest drive and closest to the pin. Also, a hold in one contest is planned. Further information: 885-2212 or 883-7690.

Upcoming events:

"Cathouse Afternoon": A bawdy musical set in the 1870s when mischief ran rampant and gold ran the town showing at 7 p.m. July 1, 7-8 at Pipers Opera House, 12 N. B. St., Virginia City. Cost: $18, $20, $25. Details: 847-7150 or 847-0433 or www.redroseonline.com.

Carson City Fireworks: This show of fireworks begins at 9:15 p.m. July 4 at Mills Park, East Williams Avenue and Roop Street, Carson City. Free. Details: 882-1565 or 687-7410.

Ongoing events:

Basketmakers' inspirations: The Nevada State Museum's Frances Humphrey Lecture Series presents The Arts and Crafts Movement: Inspirations for Contemporary Basketmakers by UNR Anthropology Department Professor Catherine Fowler, at 7:30 p.m. on June 27 at 600 N. Carson St. Call for cost: 687-4810, ext. 239.

Nevada Artists' Association: The Carson City

Provided by Miya MacKenzie, MacWest Marketing, LLC

Northern Nevada Development Authority's GOLF-A-THON, being held June 30 at Empire Ranch Golf Course, will help raise money to establish a scholarship for Western Nevada Community College's Employee Training Center. The new twist is that NNDA board member Jarrod Lopicollo's team is raising additional pledges by promising to play their 100 rounds of golf in superhero costumes. Team members, from left, are Steve Rose and Eric Abowd, both from Abowd & Rose, David Shriver from Coldwell Banker Best Sellers, and Jarrod Lopicollo from Noble Studios.

Chapter meets at 1 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month at the Brewery Arts Center, 449 W. King St. The organization is dedicated to offering support within Northern Nevada's arts community and art enthusiasts. Details: 853-7276.

Indoor Archery: Techno hunter and children's leagues are featured at Aspen Archery and Outdoors, 4851 U.S. 50 East. Includes both individual and league play. Hours: Noon to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday; 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. Cost: $7 adults, $5 children, additional $2 for equipment rental. Details: 884-1464.

High Desert Divers: The group meets at 6 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month at Grandma Hattie's Restaurant, 2811 S. Carson St., Carson City. Anyone interested in scuba diving, snorkeling or the underwater world is welcome. Cost: Free or price of meal. Details: 884-3483.

Emotions Anonymous: Meetings are held weekly with the 12-step program for emotional well-being. Meetings are available in the Reno and Carson City areas. Details: 847-5222.

Children's Museum of Northern Nevada: Exhibits at the museum include model trains, the Sound Machine, a Body Print exhibit, a Reaction Time machine and Musical Hands. There is an emergency room exhibit, a toddler area with Lego table and Fisher Price toys, a dress-up area, a Smith's Grocery Store and a castle of mirrors. The museum has a walking piano, a shadow room, the Paul Bunyan kaleidoscope and an Under-the-Sea Reading Room. Located at 813 N. Carson St., Carson City. Hours: 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday, closed Monday. Cost: $5 or $3 for children ages 2-13, free for grandparents with at least one grandchild on the first Saturday of each month. Details: 884-2226.

Nevada State Capitol: Completed in 1871, the building formed the quintessential landmark that features the silver cupola and houses historical exhibits and portraits of the state's governors. Open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily at 101 N. Carson St. Cost: Free. Details: 687-4810.

Nevada State Library and Archives: "The Altered Landscape" photography exhibit is on display through June 27. The museum houses the original Nevada Constitution approved by President Abraham Lincoln on Oct. 31, 1864. The video program "Battle Born," highlights Nevada's admission to the Union during the Civil War. The Nevada Women's History Project has a free monthly lecture series. Located at 100 N. Stewart St. Hours: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Cost: Free. Details: 684-3360.

Nevada State Museum: The "Under One Sky" exhibit includes artifacts, theater programs and dioramas highlighting Nevada's American Indian heritage. Featured at the museum is a ghost town, a mine replica, videos on the history of the mint, the John Orr gold nugget and a large Black Rock mammoth skeleton. Medallions are minted on the last Friday of each month. Located at 600 N. Carson St.

A SUPER EVENT

ON THE WEB www.carsontimes.com

18 / FRIDAY JUNE 23, 2006